To Minister of Internal Affairs

As an addition to the telegram sent on April 30 about confrontation between Jews and Russian workers in Leovo, I honorably report that according to Izmail Police report, 5 Russian workers, employees of a factory owned by local resident Nuchim Rabinovitch, went into a bar in Leovo owned by Mordko Bakaleynik to have some vodka. When one of them, Kagul resident Timophey Pisarenko, while holding a glass accidentally pushed the owner's wife Sara Bakaleynik who was passing by him and was holding a glass with coffee which fell down on the floor. Sara's husband Mordko Bakaleynik attacked Pisarenko beating him up.

Pisarenko's friend interfered to protect their friend, Mordko Bakaleynik called for his customer Chatzkel Kriegel and other Jews present at that time, a crowd of more than 50 Jews gathered, and a riot began between the Jews and the mentioned above workers. The riot was terminated soon after it began, by Morgatzky, applicant for a position in the police department. As it was determined, guilty in this riot were Jews: Mordko Bakaleynik, David Kasap, Shmul Kasap and Yerichel (probably Yerachmiel) Chatzkelevich, who were arrested and charged according to paragraph 38 of the law.
