Lachter Family, c.1900

Back row left: Abraham Lachter, my grandfather. The boy in Cossack shirt is his younger brother, Benjamin, the young girl with braids and striped dress in front is sister Brona. The three of them moved to New York City in the 1920's. Older sisters in photo have descendants in Israel and the US. Great grandfather - Harrish Lachter, was a cabinet maker.

Lachter Family,

c.1900

Passport of Abram Lahter (Lahter).

Originated in Kamenka, Olgopol district, Podoliya Gubernia.

Passport was issued by Russian Consulate in Bucharest

After coming to New York, Abram was very involved in Balta Benevolent Society.

Bernstein (Berenshteyn) family

My great grandmother, Devorah Malka Bernstein/Bernshteyn from Kamenka and a daughter.

From Passport, 1926. Kamenka

Yetta Bernstein Lachter (my grandmother) with her daughter, my mother, Ann Lachter.

Both moved to the US in 1927
