

November 2010

Dear Kremenets District Friends,

For most of the past year, I have been processing a large number of Revision List translations that we have received from our dedicated translators. That backlog now has been processed and more than 50,000 new entries have been added to our Indexed Concordance of Personal Names and Town Names. I have just finished updating (and correcting) the Concordance. The new version now has 122,443 entries, including the following:

Vital Records	57,875 entries
Revision Lists	53,879
Central Archives	4,734
Yizkor Books	3,270
Other sources	1,830
see/see also refs	1,549

The increased number of entries results from addition of newly translated (but not yet proofread) revision lists for Kremenets District Towns. To search the Concordance using Steve Morse's One-Step Search Engine, go to:

Be sure to read the updated Introduction and Guides document that explains how to interpret the Source and Location in Source data in the Concordance. Many thanks to Adam Bronstein for updating our searchable Concordance.

Here is a ranked list of towns that appear more than 500 times in the Concordance:
