

July 2019

Dear Kremenets district friends,

I'm pleased to announce that we've posted some additional Kremenets-district-related material:

- New entries on our Family Photos page (with thanks to Jeff Kaiser)
- Three photo presentations (scroll down that page): two commemorating Shumskers and Kremenetsers who perished in the Holocaust, and one an archive of additional, related photos (with thanks to Susan Sobel Kishon)
- Memoirs about David Moldovan, Vivian Tartak, and Elke Motshan (from a friend who visited her in the Kremenets Ghetto in 1942)
- People from Kremenets-district towns listed in the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum, Holocaust Survivors and Victims Database (scroll to the USHMM section: one file covering many USHMM databases and one covering registration cards of Jewish refugees in Tashkent, Uzbekistan)
- Translations of lists of Jews who perished in Lanovtsy, Vishnevets, and Vyshgorodok, 1941-1944, from the Records of the Extraordinary State Commission to Investigate German-Fascist Crimes Committed on Soviet Territory (via Yad Vashem; available on our Contributors Site)
- A complete translation of the records of the Association for the Religious Education of Orphans and Poor Children "Chinuch Yeladim" in Kremenets, 1934-1937
- Additional translations of sections of the Kremenits, Vyshgorodek, un Potshayuv yizkor bukh

Personal names and associated town names in these resources will soon be searchable in our online Concordance of Personal Names and Town Names (our master name index, covering all our translations and compilations). Meanwhile, you can search in the downloadable Excel version of the Concordance.

The Concordance now includes more than 370,000 entries extracted from various documents and other resources relating to Jews of Kremenets District towns. Of the 1,224 towns cited, the most commonly mentioned are Kremenets, Vishnevets, Radzivilov, Shumsk, Katerburg, Yampol, Ostrog, Vyshgorodok, Lanovtsy, Belozirka, Oleksinets, Pochayev, Berezhtsy, and Rokhmanov.

As a reminder, the group decided several years ago that proofed records would be available publicly. Unproofed translations are posted on our Contributors Site (available to those who have donated money or services during the previous two years).

Many thanks to all the volunteers who have contributed to our work. If you'd like to help, please consider

1. Making a contribution to the Kremenets account via JRI Poland. Donations fund the acquisition and translation of additional documents and records. Please see below for ways to donate.
2. Translating documents, providing us with new documents and datasets, volunteering to help input and/or process new data, or providing technical web services. If you can help, please send us an email (KremenetsDRG@gmail.com).

Finally, here's a reminder of two Kremenets events at the 39th IAJGS International Conference on Jewish Genealogy, to be held July 28-August 2 in Cleveland, Ohio:

- The ShareFair, Sunday, July 28, 11:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. At this event, we'll staff a Kremenets table and answer questions from people who stop by.
- The Kremenets Birds of a Feather meeting, Tuesday, July 30, 9:15-10:30 a.m. Here, we'll meet as a group and share news and progress.

Will you be attending the conference? If so, please write and tell us (rddpdx@gmail.com and ellengarshick@yahoo.com).

Many thanks for your continued interest in our work.

Regards,
Ellen Garshick
