Rabbi David Rosenberg presiding.

I was welcomed (Jan 2015) by Rabbi Rosenberg, standing next to Torah display. Inspecting close up, the Torah shows several obvious repairs, however the exposed text is readable. This Torah is used for display only-not for liturgy.

This Torah is a living memorial to the Jewish people of Uhřiněves, Czechoslovakia.

Uhřiněves was a richly populated Jewish village in the Prague district dating from before 1685. Gravestones in the old Jewish cemetery were dated from 1730.

This Torah is all that remains of a history of over 300 years of Jewish life in that small community, which was so brutally brought to a tragic end during the Holocaust. The community ל ceased to exist in 1940.

O Lord, remember your martyred children who died על קידוש השם
for the sanctification of Your Name.
