

CONSENT OF TRANSJORDANIA TO DEAD SEA GRANT CAUSES DELAY, COMMONS HEARS

Amery Says Negotiations Conducted
With Transjordanian Government

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

London, Dec. 13—The consent of the Transjordanian Government to the draft of the concession to exploit the salts of the Dead Sea is now being awaited. This is the reason for the delay in granting the concession, declared Colonial Secretary Amery in reply to a question raised in the House of Commons by Major Glyn.

Major Glyn asked the Colonial Secretary to state why the granting of the Dead Sea concession was delayed, whether the company would be British and also whether the right of possession and a share in the royalties are being reserved for the benefit of Palestine.

In his reply, the Secretary stated that negotiations are now being conducted with the Transjordanian Government, from whom a reply is now awaited concerning the details raised in connection with the draft concession submitted. Discussion with another government involves inevitable delay, Col. Amery explained, but he hopes for an early decision. He repeated his statement of last year that the concession has been granted to Moses Novomejski and Major Tulloch, subject to terms satisfactory to both governments concerned being agreed upon.

Col. Josiah Wedgwood asked the Colonial Office whether negotiations on the Iraq Haifa oil pipe line had been settled.

The Secretary replied in the negative, stating that the matter has not been discussed between the French and English governments, because the negotiations are being conducted by the Anglo-Palestine Oil Company, a private enterprise uncontrolled by the British Government.

Col. Wedgwood also asked whether the Werko tax for rural and urban districts in Palestine had been abolished. Col. Amery replied that it is still levied in rural districts. An urban property tax will be levied next April, he stated.

ORDER TO RAZE HOUSES RE- STORING JEWISH ANTIQUITIES

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Bratislava, Dec. 13—An order to demolish houses in which historically important stones taken from the ancient Jewish cemetery here were used in the building, was issued by the city authorities here.

Some time ago the ancient Jewish cemetery here was plundered at night and twenty-five tombstones, considered rare antiquities and works of art, were carried away. It was later discovered that the missing stones were employed in the construction of houses.

ELECTIONS PASS WITHOUT DISORDER IN ROUMANIA; MANIU REGIME UPHELD BY GREAT MAJORITY

Single Anti-Jewish Act Reported from Bessarabia; No Anti-Semitic Danger Threatens Jewish Population, Was Last Pre-Election Assurance of Government Members

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Bucharest, Dec. 13—With the exception of a single anti-Jewish act reported from a Bessarabian town, no anti-Jewish disturbances occurred during the elections to parliament held Wednesday, resulting in an overwhelming majority for the National Peasant Party and the Maniu cabinet.

Neither the Cuzists, the anti-Semites, nor the Communists, succeeded in electing any representatives. The Liberal Party, the chief opponent of the Maniu government, elected only 10 representatives. The vote, as nearly as can be determined at this moment, was above 85% in favor of the Maniu government. The parliament has 376 members. Although final returns or lists are not available, it is almost certain that all Jewish candidates on the lists of the government party were elected. What is not known yet is whether Dr. William Filderman, leader of the Union of Roumanian Jews, is among the 100 Liberal representatives elected.

A single anti-Jewish act was reported today by the "Adeverul" from Leowa, Bessarabia, where the synagogue was invaded and the Torah Scrolls desecrated. The Minister of the Interior telegraphed immediately to the local authorities to institute an investigation and apprehend the culprits.

Assurances that the Jewish population in Roumania is not threatened by any anti-Semitic danger in case the Maniu government is upheld, were given by various members of the cabinet in pre-election speeches delivered Tuesday night. Particularly emphatic was Minister Madgearu, who declared that the Jews of Roumania have nothing to fear. Even the student body, the most turbulent factor in the anti-Semitic movement in years gone by, is now returning to peaceful studies. Measures have also been taken by the Ministry of Education to clear the atmosphere in the secondary schools of anti-Semitic virus, he stated.

"It is quite natural that the abolition of censorship and the suspension of martial law gave freedom of the press, to our regret, also to the Communists, as well as to the anti-Semites, who have taken advantage of the privilege. However, the government, which wishes to establish freedom in the country, is strong enough and determined enough to prevent the slightest attempt at disturbing the peace," Minister Madgearu declared.

The member of the Maniu cabinet then polemicized in strong terms with assertions reported to have been made by Dr. William Filderman, Liberal candidate in Bucharest. "It is unfair to spread rumors that the accession of the Maniu government to power has revived the anti-Semitic movement. It is deplorable that Dr. Filderman should lend himself to such assertions, although he knows that the regency as well as the government have at their disposal effective means and are earnestly determined to punish not only those responsible for acts, but even intentions, to disturb the peace of the country and citizenry," he declared.

PALESTINE ORANGES TO BE IMPORTED TO CANADA

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Montreal, Dec. 13—Jaffa oranges from Palestine will shortly be placed on the Canadian market for the first time. A shipment of three hundred cases of oranges from his plantations near Jaffa has just been received by Asher Pierce of Montreal and is being distributed to Montreal and Toronto dealers.

The oranges were shipped from Palestine to Halifax, the Canadian port of entry, and were sent from Halifax to Montreal by rail. The oranges were packed by a special process and have not suffered in transit. The question now being asked by those interested in promoting Palestine-Canada commercial relations, is whether this orange, which is recognized on the European market as the best, will take with the Canadian consumers. If this shipment of Mr. Pierce's proves a success, it will be the forerunner for a new market in Canada for regular shipments of Jaffa oranges, it was pointed out.

WARSAW AUTHORITIES CONFISCATE BOYCOTT ORGAN

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

Warsaw, Dec. 13—The pre-Christmas edition of the "Roswoj," organ of the boycott organization, was confiscated by an order of the Government Commissioner of the City of Warsaw.

The reason for the order was the publication of an appeal to the Polish population not to purchase Christmas articles from Jewish stores. "Buying from Jews is treason to the Fatherland," was the inscription over the appeal.

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN

Published every day in the week except Saturday and Jewish high holidays by the

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN CO.

Publication Office:
110 Bridge Plaza South, Long Island City, N.Y.
Address All Mail to Executive and Editorial Office:
611 Broadway, New York, N. Y.
Jacob Landau President
Samuel Bienstock Treasurer
John Simons Secretary
William Z. Spiegelman Editor

Vol. V. Friday, Dec. 14, 1928. No. 1242.

Offices of the Jewish Daily Bulletin
New York 611 Broadway
London 244 High Holborn
Paris 5, Rue Cardinal Mercier, Paris VIII
Berlin Eisenbahnstrasse 6, Berlin-Halensee
Warsaw Ulica Aleje Jerzolimski Nr. 18
Jerusalem Hasolel Bldg.
Cairo 13, Abou-El-Sebah

Subscription Rates

	U.S. and Canada	Foreign
One Year	$10.00	$15.00
Six Months	6.00	8.00
One Month	1.00	1.50

Entered as second-class matter July 19, 1927, at the Post Office at L. I. City, N. Y., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Copyrighted

ANNOUNCE PLANS FOR U. P. A. CAMPAIGN

Preparations are now being made in the various cities throughout the country for the launching of United Palestine Appeal campaigns after the first of the year. Two important conferences will be held the latter part of this month for the adoption of plans. Dr. J. M. Rubinow, Executive Director of the United Palestine Appeal announced. One of these conferences will be that of the Western Pennsylvania Region, which will take place in Pittsburgh on December 30. Another conference will be that of the Eastern Pennsylvania Region, of which Benjamin L. Rubinsohn is Chairman, which will hold its sessions in Atlantic City on December 30.

New York City is also making extensive preparations for the opening of its campaign the latter part of January with a large banquet. In addition to Nahum Sokolow, Chairman of the Zionist Executive, other European and Palestinian leaders are expected to be present, Dr. Rubinow declared.

Dr. Rubinow pointed to the series of conferences being held throughout the Greater City as indicating the enthusiasm preliminary to the opening of the campaign.

Much interest has also been aroused by the activities of the New York Chapter of Hadassah which is preparing a "Give or Get" luncheon for January 23 at the Hotel Astor.

The series of conferences includes one in the Borough Park territory, which will be held at the Zion Center on Monday, December 17. A joint conference of contributors to the United Palestine Appeal in Brownsville, East New York, Boulevard, New Lots, and East Flatbush sections will be held at the Stone Avenue Talmud Torah on Sunday, December 23. About 100 organizations will participate in the conference of East Side organizations, being held under the auspices of the United

LAVANBURG HOUSING
FOUNDATION TO GET $1,146,722
RESIDUE OF ESTATE

Other Large Bequests Made to Charitable Institutions

The estate of Fred L. Lavanburg, who gave liberally of his fortune during his lifetime for better housing of the poor and to many other philanthropies, was appraised at $3,024,471 net by Maurice A. Stephenson, Deputy Commissioner of Taxation and Finance.

The Fred L. Lavanburg Foundation, a housing project, which he founded with an endowment of $750,000 a year or more before his death on November 5, 1927, receives the residue of his estate, amounting to $1,146,722. The residuary estate was reduced by debts of $2,197,481, some of them on stock brokerage accounts.

Mr. Lavanburg also left $500,000 to the Hannah Lavanburg Home, an institution for girls, which he founded in memory of his mother, and to nine alumnae associations of hospital training schools for nurses $3,000 each.

Mrs. Sarah L. Straus, sister, widow of Oscar S. Straus, former American Ambassador to Turkey, receives $302,355. To Louise Heckler, of Stamford, Conn., a friend, Mr. Lavanburg left $250,000, jewelry valued at $7,055 and the income for life from a trust fund of $150,000. Bequests of $100,000 each were left to two nieces and a nephew, $10,000 each to ten grandnephews and grandnieces. Fifty-eight employees received $362 each.

Commissioner Stephenson's appraisal showed that besides the legacies to the Fred L. Lavanburg Foundation and the Hannah Lavanburg Home the testator in 1926 and 1927 gave to the foundation $353,566 and 5,000 shares of the New York Transportation Company, and to the home shares valued at $601,941. The Metropolitan Museum receives a Flemish tapestry valued at $4,500.

The will of Hyman B. Rubin, filed in the Surrogate's Court yesterday, creates trust funds and makes specific bequests aggregating $345,000. Mr. Rubin, who died on November 30, bequeathed $25,000 to Beth Israel Hospital, and $5,000 each to two free loan associations in Poland.

Mr. Rubin's largest outright bequest was one of $100,000 to his parents, Morris and Ida Rubin, of 131 West 110th Street. He created a trust fund of $25,000 to be divided into equal parts among any first cousins who, by competent proof, established their relationship within one year after the probate of the will.

Palestine Appeal at the Hotel Pennsylvania on Sunday, December 16. The annual meeting of the contributors to the United Palestine Appeal in Mount Vernon will be held on Monday evening, December 17.

Morris Rothenberg, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the United Palestine Appeal, will speak on "The Romance of Zionism," tonight at the Unity Temple, West 79th Street, New York.

RIGHT WING OF JEWISH
CLOAKMAKERS' UNION
MOVES TO RESTORE PEACE

"Forgive and Forget" Is Olive Branch
Extended to Excluded Members

An offer to restore peace in the ranks of the International Ladies Garment Workers' Union, the majority of whose members are Jews, was made by the Right Wing at a mass meeting held Wednesday evening at the Manhattan Opera House and an overflow meeting at Bryant Hall.

What virtually amounts to a proposal on the part of the Right Wing to "forgive and forget" and a readiness to readmit into the International the Left Wing groups excluded several years ago was made by Benjamin Schlesinger, recently elected president of the International succeeding Morris Sigman. The ranks of the Jewish cloak and dress makers of New York City have been torn by bitter partisan strife often leading to acts of violence since the split.

According to the offer, all members who have been excluded from the Union will be readmitted and recognized as old members with all rights and privileges, regardless of their personal, political convictions. It was stipulated, however, that this status would be extended to them "as long as they will comply with the provisions of the Union constitution and will not act as outside organizations may dictate to them."

New elections in the locals and of the Joint Board are to take place, in which the Left Wingers may participate. A convention of the International is to be called after the conclusion of negotiations with the Employers' Association concerning a new trade agreement, to elect new officers.

Those present concurred in the proposal, but there is no definite way of knowing as to whether the Left Wingers as a whole will accept.

MARSHALL FELICITATED ON BIRTHDAY TODAY

Further statements felicitating Mr. Louis Marshall, President of the American Jewish Committee, on the occasion of his seventy-second birthday, today were made to the Jewish Daily Bulletin.

Dr. Lee K. Frankel: "Mr. Marshall is such an international character that it is fitting for the good wishes of his friends and admirers all over the world to be conveyed to him through the medium of the Jewish Daily Bulletin.

"Any attempt to say a word of praise regarding the things that Mr. Marshall has done for world Jewry would be futile. It is sufficient for us who know him and who have worked with him to express our fervent thanks that he has been permitted for so many years to lead and to guide us."

Former Congressman Isaac Siegel: "Mr. Marshall's voice has always been lifted in behalf of the oppressed, regardless of their faith. He has repeatedly sounded the clarion note of duty to American Jewry to remember

(Continued on Page 4)

SEMINAR ON RELATIONS BETWEEN CHRISTIANS AND JEWS TO BE HELD JANUARY

Federal Council's Committee on Good Will Issues Call

A joint gathering of representative Jewish, Catholic and Protestant men and women at which reliable material and information upon points of conflict and possibilities for cooperation may be presented and discussed, and the findings made available for public use, is being planned by the Committee on Goodwill Between Jews and Christians of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. This Seminar will be held in Earl Hall, Columbia University, New York City, on January 30th and 31st, 1929, the Rev. Everett R. Clinchy, secretary, announced.

The membership of the conference is to consist of fifty people from each religious group; first, so that Jews, Catholics and Protestants will be represented equally; and secondly, so that the Seminar may be kept to such a size that group discussion and mutual acquaintance may be given the fullest opportunity, he stated. Men and women will be admitted as members of the Seminar, as representatives of their particular group, upon the basis of their interest in this subject, their previous experience in inter-racial and inter-religious contacts, and their power and willingness to further the interests of goodwill and brotherhood in these areas. Applications for membership should be sent in immediately so that those who are constituted as members may receive the preliminary information and data.

Three major topics will be discussed. Each of these will be led by an authority in that field, with two other associates, so that the three groups will be represented by leaders. These topics are: (1) Vocational adjustments for minority groups; (2) Religious mis-education; (3) Community projects in which religious groups are now in conflict, but in which they may cooperate.

A large public dinner in one of the New York hotels, at which speakers of national prominence will be present, is planned for the evening of January 31.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, Martin Conboy, Louis Marshall, Professor Harrison S. Elliott, and Dr. Charles E. Jefferson will be among the speakers. Other experts in the special fields will be announced later.

Applications for membership in the Seminar, and questions relating to it, should be sent to Everett R. Clinchy, Secretary of the Committee on Goodwill Between Jews and Christians, 105 East 22nd Street, New York City.

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 13—Designed to create mutual understanding and appreciation among Jews, Catholics and Protestants, the Religious Good Will League has decided to incorporate. At a meeting of the executive committee in the Southern Hotel Tuesday night the constitution and by-laws of the organization were adopted, temporary officers were elected and the name of

(Continued on Page 4)

J. D. B. NEWS LETTER

Conflict Between Rabbis and Cantors Over Marriage Statute Brought to Court

By Our Boston Correspondent

Boston, Mass., Dec. 12—Judge John Duff issued summonses for the appearance in the Boston Municipal Court of 12 cantors next Wednesday when, before Chief Justice Bolster of the Boston Municipal Court, the cantors will be tried for illegally performing marriages. The bitter controversy between the rabbis and cantors here that has raged for more than a year will now be decided in the courts. Under the Massachusetts statute, as interpreted by the Secretary of State, cantors cannot perform the marriage ceremony.

The state authorities have the backing of some of the leading Orthodox Rabbis who charge that self-styled rabbis are performing the ceremony without authority either of the Jewish religious or State laws. The cantors that will be in court next Wednesday are affiliated with some of the leading congregations.

Every effort to settle the question out of court to date has failed. Conferences of the Association of Jewish Congregations and of the Association of Cantors have continued for some time but no agreement has been reached. Leading rabbis, including Rabbi M. S. Margolies of New York and Rabbi B. L. Levinthal of Philadelphia, have been asked to appear here in order to back up the authority of the State.

The cantors as defendants will face the rabbis in open court when Judge Bolster, a non-Jew, will be asked to interpret the existing law. At no time in the history of the Jewry of Massachusetts has there been precedence for such a case. The efforts on the part of many who are neutral in the matter to take the case out of the courts has met with failure. Alexander Brin, editor of the "Boston Jewish Advocate," has been asked to try to bring about peace.

Legislation in behalf of the cantors to remove the strict interpretation of the statute with a view of giving relief to the cantors was introduced at the last session of the Massachusetts House of Representatives but failed, as objections to the bill were made just at the closing of the session. There is divided opinion among both lawyers and rabbis as to the reading of the law, on the question of who is entitled to perform the marriage ceremony. This will be the principal issue that the court will be asked to determine.

A year ago the matter came up before the Secretary of State and after a conference with all of the parties, the registrar told the rabbis and cantors to settle the matter among themselves. A statement was later issued by Secretary of State Cook, defining what is a rabbi. This definition was decided upon among the Orthodox and Reform rabbis alike. The definition read "a rabbi is one who is a graduate of a

(Continued on Page 4)

ROSENWALD MAKES $1,200,000 GIFT TO CHICAGO UNIVERSITY

May Be Raised to $2,000,000 If University Raises Larger Amount
(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Chicago, Dec. 13—The gift of $1,200,000 by Julius Rosenwald, a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Chicago and one of the university's leading benefactors, was announced today by President Woodward of the University of Chicago. The gift was made by Mr. Rosenwald towards a $3,000,000 building program which probably will be expanded to $5,000,000. If the University itself raises an additional $3,000,000, Mr. Rosenwald said he would increase his gift to $2,000,000. Construction of dormitories for 400 men and 380 women will be started as early as possible in the spring.

In making the announcement, Acting President Woodward predicted the development of a finer type of student life with the majority of the students, graduate and undergraduate, living in quadrangles on university land.

It was stated that the Board of Trustees is prepared to take full advantage of Mr. Rosenwald's offer, assuring the $5,000,000 program eventually, although only the $3,000,000 of building has been authorized.

OTTINGER PRESENTS CHASSIDIC RABBI WITH TORAH SCROLL

Attorney General Albert Ottinger, former Republican candidate for New York State Governor, will present a Scroll of the Law, which he ordered written by a European scribe, to the Congregation Kehillath Moshe, the Bronx, of which Rabbi Moses Epstein is the spiritual leader.

The presentation exercises will be held Saturday night, December 15, in the house of worship of Congregation Ain Jacob, 1426 Minford Place, where the Torah Scroll will be brought from Congregation Kehillath Moishe, 1532 Hoe Avenue, with impressive ceremonies. Three thousand guests and representatives of various New York Jewish organizations and congregations have been invited to attend. They will witness the Siyum Ha'Torah (the completion of the Scroll).

Rabbi Epstein, a Chassidic leader, known in the Bronx as the "Rabbi of Ozerow" (Poland), is a descendant, as is the Attorney General, of Rabbi Meir of Rothenburg, thirteenth century sage and martyr. It is as an expression of esteem for Rabbi Epstein that the Attorney General is making the presentation. Rabbi Epstein and Mr. Ottinger will speak at the exercises.

Nathan Kaufer, country clothes peddler who died recently in Milwaukee, Wis., left a bequest of $500 to every synagogue and temple in Milwaukee. His will disposes of an estate of $300,000. Bequests of $2,000 and $1,000 were made to Mount Sinai, the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Hungarian Jewish Home and the Jewish Orphans' Home, synagogue at Farkas, Czechoslovakia, Jewish Orphanage at Cleveland and the Talmud schools in Jerusalem.

SEMINAR ON RELATIONS BETWEEN CHRISTIANS AND JEWS TO BE HELD JANUARY

(Continued from Page 3)

the association changed to the League for Inter-religious Good Will.

The Rev. Dr. Peter Ainslie, pastor of the Christian Temple, was elected temporary president; William H. Gideon, a Jew, was elected temporary treasurer, and William H. Claire, a Christian Scientist, was chosen temporary secretary.

Jews attending the meeting were Jacob Epstein, Dr. Harry Friedenwald, Rabbi Edward L. Israel, of the Har Sinai Temple; Reuben Oppenheimer, Dr. David E. Weglein, Superintendent of the Public Schools of Baltimore, and Mr. Gideon.

The board of managers will be composed of nine men from each of the three main groups. In addition to the executive committee, six standing committees will be appointed to deal with education, social service, program, publicity and publications, entertainment and extension.

In election of officers the president and the two vice-presidents will represent the three different groups.

Many prominent leaders of religious life in New York participated in a goodwill meeting held last night at Temple Emanu-El under the auspices of the Men's Club.

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, the Rev. Francis P. Duffy, Dr. David De Sola Pool, the Rev. Howard Chandler Robbins, Dean of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine; Justice Arthur S. Tompkins, John G. Agar and Dr. Nathan Krass were among the speakers.

RABBI HOFFMAN TO DIRECT CORNELL HILLEL FOUNDATION

(Jewish Daily Bulletin)

Utica, N. Y., Dec. 13—Rabbi Isidor B. Hoffman, for the past three years rabbi of Temple Beth-El, Utica, N. Y., will become director of the Hillel Foundation of Cornell University next month. He will be advisor to several hundred Jewish students at the University. This is the first B'nai Brith Hillel Foundation established in the East.

URGE NATHAN SWEEDLER AS CITY HOSPITAL COMMISSIONER

Nathan Sweedler, Brooklyn attorney, is urged as one of the commissioners under the new plan for the reorganization of the hospitals of the city, by two Brooklyn papers, the "Brooklyn Daily Eagle" and the "Brooklyn Daily Times."

"Mr. Sweedler, because of his intimate knowledge of conditions, his high standing in the community and his unselfish devotion to such service, would be an admirable selection for the position of deputy commissioner of hospitals under the new form of organization," the "Eagle" declares.

"There are influential factors in Brooklyn's social and political life which would view with interest and pleasure the appointment of Mr. Sweedler to one of these posts. If energy, executive capacity and business rabbinical or a member of a national rabbinical body, or one who has been privately or purposely ordained according to Jewish law."

J. D. B. NEWS LETTER

(Continued from Page 3)

Under this interpretation most of the cantors were barred from performing the ceremony as they are not ordained members of any seminary. The cantors made a strong protest but the State authorities told them that only a change of the present law can bring about relief. The marriages which had been performed by the cantors are not invalidated by the interpretation, it was made clear by those who are in authority.

Major Walsh, a prominent non-Jewish lawyer, will appear for the complainants, while Albert Hurwitz has been retained by the cantors. The cantors look upon this case as a test case and in the event the lower court does not reach a decision, the case will be appealed to the highest court, the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court.

An array of leading rabbis including Rabbi I. L. Silver of Springfield, Mass., Rabbi Israel Rosenberg, president of the Union of Orthodox Congregations, Rabbi M. S. Margolies, Rabbi B. L. Leventhal and others are among the authorities summoned.

The law as it now reads states: "a marriage may be solemnized in any place within the commonwealth by a minister of the Gospel, ordained according to the usage of his denomination who resides in the commonwealth and continues to perform the functions of his office by a rabbi of the Israelitish faith duly licensed by a congregation, said faith established in the commonwealth, who has filed with the clerk or registrar of the town where he resides, a certificate of the establishment of the synagogue, the date of his appointment thereto and of the term of his engagement."

The philanthropic endeavors of New York Jewry were praised by Mayor Walker Tuesday night in an address at the dinner of the Home of the Daughters of Jacob held at the Hotel Astor. The occasion was the thirty-second anniversary of the founding of the organization, which was celebrated by one thousand men and women who paid $100 a plate at the banquet, the funds realized being applied to the $300,000 maintenance fund which the institution requires annually for its support. Philip Weinstein, chairman of the Committee in charge of the arrangements for the dinner, was toastmaster.

Mrs. Peter J. Schweitzer, president of the institution, spoke of the part played by women in the development of philanthropy. Col. Herbert H. Lehman, Lieutenant-Governor-elect of New York State, Rabbi M. Z. Margolis, Albert Goldman, Commissioner of Plants and Structures, Mrs. Rebekah Kohut, Judge Otto A. Rosalsky, Sheriff Charles Culken, and Aaron Sapiro, also addressed the gathering.

ability constitute the touchstone for success in such an undertaking, Mr. Sweedler unquestionably possesses the needed qualifications," writes the "Times."

MARSHALL FELICITATED ON BIRTHDAY TODAY

(Continued from Page 2)

that without religious education no boy or girl can ever grow up to be either a credit to his own parents or to the American people, or to those of the Jewish faith. He has fought the battle of the minorities fearlessly and courageously.

"Three State Constitutional Conventions have seen him one of its members. Due to his own tireless and indefatigable efforts, his fame as a lawyer of honor and distinction has spread to all the four corners of the earth. He has never differentiated as to the hour of the day when he could render service to our common country or to the cause of mankind. The history of the Jew in America for more than thirty years past, shows him always at the front line fighting for what he has deemed right."

Isaac A. Gusdorff, for many years a leader in Baltimore Jewry, died Tuesday night.

Prior to his retirement several years ago, he was president of the Eutaw Place Temple for eleven years. He also was interested in philanthropic work among both Jews and Christians, his name being associated with organizations interested in charitable causes.

Rabbi Samuel Schulman says:

"The Jewish Daily Bulletin has given very good service. I am the best example of it. I have grown to admire it, like it and love it. I was prejudiced against it. The power of the paper is to win those who met its foundation with misgiving.

"Prejudice against the Jewish Daily Bulletin has been in my case overcome by the fact that the paper has done a necessary and inestimable work."

Dear Subscriber:

Are you helping us to win new friends before January first?

Are you demonstrating the friendship and good will you bear us by introducing the Bulletin to your friends?

Are you sending CHANUKAH GREETINGS to a friend, in the form of a subscription to the Jewish Daily Bulletin?

JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN.

CONCERT OF ORIGINAL COMPOSITIONS by

A. W. BINDER

TOMORROW EVENING
DEC. 15, at 8:30

Stringwood Ensemble; Free Synagogue Choir; Daverah Cooper; Max Bloch; Boris Saslawsky; Joseph Stopak; Virginia Carrington Thomas; Viola Silva.

First performance of the Cantata "The Birth of Samuel"

Mgt. Richard Copley.

Tickets NOW at Box Office.

Steinway Pianos