Confined. F. Brauckmann

P.S. When the discussion about auditing the books took place, the Secretary was chosen, the attention of the meeting to the minutes written in his own handwriting. He was a professor and able to do it, but I would rather have his professor, as there is no chance of taking over by his successor, whereas the former is the secretary. I think an error has been made by the predecessor. It is an added work clearly placed on.
