The Chairman in opening the Meeting referred to the small attendance and the little interest Parents are taking in the Hebrew Education for their children. The collections for Teacher Salary amounted to £11-11-0 which leaves a shortage of £3-9-0 per month as the Congregation finances are not so encouraging it is therefore impossible to meet this deficiency, if the parent cannot subscribe the shortage in salary then it is left for the Meeting to decide whether Mr Lederman's services be retained. Mr Kurland referred to the

The little supervision given by the Education Committee to the teaching. The Chairman expressed his opinion that the children have made some headway.

Mr Kurland asked whose duties it is to instruct Barmy, Moh Bay, whether the Teacher or Res Helman? The Chairman said that these duties would fall to Res Helman. Mr Marcus spoke and mentioned amongst other things that it would be pity not to reengage Mr Lederman again as he thinks the children have done very well since Mr Lederman became the teacher, for the deficiency one could organize a function, and moved that Mr Lederman be reengaged. ^{Mr Marcus also moved} Mr Blum moved that he should not be reengaged.
